Who is S...CAP?

S...CAP (Slow...Children at Play) is an established comedy improv troupe consisting of talented, energetic & intuitive performers who have been performing improv & multi-media shows in North Hollywood and various L.A. venues since 1998. Previous business & team building clients include:

- Federal Express
- Vocaid
- Price/Waterhouse/Coopers
- City of Culver City
- Health Net

S...CAP was founded by actor and director, Tim Simek. Besides numerous film & TV credits in co-starring and supporting roles, Simek is an award-winning motivational speaker who shares his improv knowledge and experience at business conferences, company meetings and speaker functions. For over a decade, Simek has been an energizing and inspirational teacher and continues to conduct improv classes at the group's theatre as well as through the L.A. Pierce College Extension program. Simek's philosophy—to provide a safe, nurturing environment that fosters creativity, individual exploration, and new ways of thinking. He is a member of Delta Sigma Pi, a professional business fraternity, and the Screen Actors Guild. Simek is an avid golfer and knows the benefits of laughter when it comes to playing the game.

Benefits of the S...CAP program:

- Heightened Awareness
- Trust Building
- Increased Listening, Focus and Sensory Skills
- Stronger Communication
- Development of Solid Work Relationships
- Tools to Enhance Productivity
- Creative Stress Transformation
- Overall Fun on the Job

 (Results may vary depending on organizational structure, company/management goals as well as business and individual needs)

The creative approach of the S...CAP program allows everyone to experience LIFT & HUMOR.
